ISMPP U PLANNING PROCESS

Jennifer Ciafullo
Education Content Manager

ISMPP U REMIT

- In general, Committee is responsible for the planning and delivery of ISMPP U web-based seminars
  - Develop monthly ISMPP U webinars for the membership
  - Review previous ISMPP U presentations to determine if they remain relevant and can be re-posted to the ISMPP
  - Assist in informing ISMPP educational content initiatives (eg, the map, Annual and European Meetings, ISMPP

ISMPP U TOPIC/SESSION LEADER RESPONSIBILITIES

- So, now you have a Topic that you are to lead as an ISMPP U committee member – Why you?
  - You have an interest in this topic
  - You yourself are informed and possibly an expert on this topic
  - You want to understand this topic
- You are the lead to develop and produce the ISMPP U session on that topic
  - You will be with that session “cradle to grave”

WHAT NOW?

- If you have co-leads, schedule a call and discuss each members respective role
- Investigate the topic
  - Has it been a topic at a previous:
    - ISMPP U?
    - Annual Meeting?
    - Workshop?

AND THEN . . .

- Expand and develop the scope of the session respective to the needs of the ISMPP membership
- Insure the presentation/session meet the following requirements:
  - Description and learning objectives established for the program
  - Appropriate use of currently accepted vocabulary
  - Inclusion of US-based and global-based practices and/or regulations
  - Content free of marketing and product promotion
- The session is 1-hour
  - Presentation should last 35-40 minutes total; remainder of time for Q&A (10-15 minutes)

BE MINDFUL OF OTHERS

- Check the topic, objectives, and overview with affected stakeholders:
  - ISMPP staff (Celeste/Jennifer)
  - May want to check or work with other ISMPP Committees
    - Annual Meeting Program Committee
    - European Program Committee
    - Global Workshop Committee
    - Standards Committee
  - The ISMPP team (Jennifer/Celeste) will assist in ensuring Credentialing Committee review for recertification credit

FINDING PRESENTERS/FACULTY

- You may already know an expert or someone competent to present
- Engage other resources including fellow committee members to identify potential faculty presenters
- Once you have identified them . . . invite the person or persons
  - Call and email
  - ISMPP staff can assist in writing intro email or use previous emails as template

WORKING WITH THE FACULTY

- You may want to provide them with ISMPP and ISMPP U Overviews, especially if they are not members of ISMPP
  - ISMPP10 Years' Accomplishments deck (to be provided)
- Communicate with presenter(s) to ensure comfort with session objectives and describe who ISMPP members are as an audience
  - Utilize: ISMPP U speaker agreement to confirm understanding of role and agreement to speak
  - Inform them that the session will be audiotaped and reviewed for credit for "live participants" on the session and archived on the ISMPP Website for education purposes

WORKING WITH THE FACULTY, CONT'D

- Once confirmed, introduce the presenter(s) to ISMPP U Chair/Vice Chair and ISMPP staff
- This kicks off Teaser and Content Development, and QC

NEXT STEPS AND TIMELINES

- Once the introduction is made, ISMPP will start interacting with the faculty presenter(s)
  - Provide ISMPP U slide template via email
  - Develop teaser
    - Emailed 3 weeks prior to session; dial-in information sent a day or two before session and reminder the day of
  - Offer assistance with graphics and presentation development
    - Content due to you as the lead and submission to ISMPP and Committee 2 weeks prior to session for review via the ISMPP U slide review protocol (return approved or with comments within 48-hours)

HELP AT EVERY STEP: ISMPP LIAISON

- ISMPP staff to drive the following:
  - Teaser development and approval
  - ISMPP U template and necessary slide components
    - Learning objectives, disclaimer(s), agenda, additional resources, slide review criteria, audience polling (optional)
  - Internal slide review and collation of feedback
    - Includes coordination with CMPP Recertification Committee and formatting assistance
  - Dry run scheduling
  - Evaluation summary to moderator and speakers
- Also available to lend support on topic selection, optimal timing, researching ISMPP topic “history” . . . anything you need – just ask!

TIMING IS EVERYTHING...

Component	Timing	Notes
Teaser	3 weeks prior to session	Should contain learning objectives; follow template style and format
Slide Deck	2 weeks prior to session	Deck should be in final form preferably in ISMPP U template
Slide Review	Within 48 hours of receipt of deck	Chair, Vice Chair, Moderator, session leader(s), ISMPP (Jennifer/Celeste)
Moderator Q&A	Preferably 2 weeks prior	Prefer to have 2 – 3 preset questions on hand
CMPP recertification credit check	Preferably 2 weeks prior; can turn around quicker if need be	Reviewed independently; topic matter must be suitably complex qualify
Slide Formatting	1 week prior to session	N/A
Dry run	Monday or Tuesday before session; can be week prior if needed for scheduling purposes	Need full deck in-hand
Dial-In Information	Sent prior to session; reminder sent morning of	Moderator and Presenters have different dial-in information than attendees
Evaluation Summary	1 week post presentation	Will highlight highest response category; negative feedback will be reviewed with session leader prior to dissemination

NEXT STEPS AND TIMELINES – CONT'D

- Date for “Dry Run” is scheduled to ensure the Moderator and Presenter(s) are comfortable with the ISMPP U session platform and program flow
  - You may or may not be the Moderator but as the Session/Topic Lead please be on this call to assist with deliverables post “Dry Run”
- Date of Session – if you are not the Moderator, please participate in the session and listen to provide feedback on the session
- Post ISMPP U Session you will continue to be the liaison with the presenter(s) to thank them on behalf of ISMPP and the ISMPP U Committee
